Prayer
I Timothy 2:1-4

I. Who should I pray for?
   a. We should pray for our enemies. (Matthew 5:44)
   b. We should pray for those in authority. (1 Timothy 2:1-4)
   c. We should pray for those who are lost. (Romans 10:1)
   d. We should pray for our brethren. (Romans 1:9-10; Ephesians 1:15-19; Philippians 1:4; Colossians 1:3; 1 Thessalonians 1:2)

II. What should I pray for?
   a. We need to be praying for the kingdom, that is the church. (Matthew 6:33; Ephesians 4:4; Matthew 9:37-38)
   b. We should pray for wisdom. (James 1:5-6; I Kings 3:9-10; 1 Corinthians 10:12)
   c. We should pray for boldness. (Acts 4).
   d. We should pray for guidance to allow God’s will to be done. (2 Chronicles 20:12; Matthew 6:10, 39)
   e. We should pray for forgiveness. (Matthew 6:12-13)

III. How should I deal with prayers that seem to be unanswered?
   a. We must not forsake God. (James 1:3-4)
   b. We must remember that God is omniscient and knows best what we need. (Matthew 6:25-34)
   c. We must remember God’s will, not our will, must be done. (1 John 5:14)
