Faith Without Works
James 2

I. There is no place for prejudice in the life of a Christian. (James 2:1-13)
   a. This applies to the rich and the poor. (1 Timothy 6:9-10, 17-19)
   b. This also applies to prejudice regarding nationality. (Luke 10; Galatians 3:28; Romans 10:12)

II. There is more to being a Christian than just having faith. (James 14-26)
   a. Works without faith is dead. (Matthew 7:21-23; John 8:24; Romans 3:28)
   b. But faith without works is dead also. (Hebrews 11:6; James 2:17, 22)
