Biblical Warnings: Take Heed Lest You Fall
I Corinthians 10:12

I. We are surrounded by warnings today. They are for our protection.

II. The Bible has many examples of God’s warnings.
   a. God warned Adam and Eve in the garden. (Genesis 2:15-17; 3:1-5)
   b. God warned Noah “of things not yet seen.” (Hebrews 11:7; Genesis 6:13-14)
   c. The ministry of Jesus consisted of numerous warnings.
      i. Jesus teaches about the New Law. (Matthew 5:21-48)
      ii. Beware of false teachers in sheep’s clothing. (Matthew 7:15, 21-27)
      iii. Remove anything that would cause you to stumble. (Mark 9:42-48)
   d. The apostles of Christ also issued warnings. (Acts 20:31; II Peter 2:1-3; James 4:7)

III. We are given a chilling warning in I Corinthians 10:12
   a. “Take heed lest you fall.”
   b. Proves the notion of being able to fall from grace. (Matthew 24:12-13; I Timothy 4:1; Hebrews 3:12)
   c. Therefore, we must always strive to mature in Christ. (II Peter 3:17-18)
