Where are the Dead?
Luke 16:19-31

   a. Lazarus was a poor beggar who begged for food from a certain rich man.
   b. Both Lazarus and this rich man died, but now their roles are reversed.
   c. Abraham informed the rich man that he was beyond help.
   d. The rich man asked if someone could warn his family.
   e. He was informed that such could not occur.

II. Where are the Dead?
   a. Are they in the ground buried? ______. (James 2:26)
   b. Are they in Heaven or Hell? ____________. (John 3:13; 2 Peter 2:9)
   c. Are they somewhere in between? _______. (John 20:17)

III. Did Jesus spend a period of time in Hell after His death? _____ (Acts 2:31)
   a. Jesus, like all the dead, was in a place called “________.”
   b. ______ has reference to the abode of departed spirits, “The realm of the dead.”
      (Matthew 16:18)
   c. Hades and Hell are not to be confused.
      i. “________” has two parts.
         1. Place for the ___________. (Luke 23:43; Acts 2:31)
         2. Place for the ___________. (2 Peter 2:9)
      ii. “Gehenna” or “_______” has reference to the eternal destiny of the wicked. (Matthew 10:28)

IV. Lessons we can learn from the rich man and Lazarus.
   a. There is no second chance after death. (Luke 16:26)
   b. There is ____________ after death. (Luke 16:22-23)
   c. There is ____________ after death. (Luke 16:23-24)
   d. There is ____________ after death. (Luke 16:27-28; I Thessalonians 4:18)
   e. There is no contact with the living after death. (Luke 16:27-31)